Re: Notice of Right to Cure Default, Barcode No.
*2403382552

Dear Mr. Grubb, on behalf of Exeter Finance LLC and CarMax, Inc.:

Wafford hereby acknowledges the receipt of Exeter & CarMax's Notice of No Right to Cure an Alleged Default, as evidenced by a forwarded screenshot.

Mr. Wafford requests that Exeter update his last known mailing address to REDACTED

. However, he no longer resides in Alabama and cannot rely on current occupants at this address to forward correspondence. Exeter has communicated with Wafford through litigation from two Arizona and two Alabama residences and one Texas and Alabama law office, but never through written correspondence to a physical mailing address.

Mr. Wafford further notes that his personal information has previously been disclosed without authorization. While a data breach is not part of the present dispute, your correspondence by mail does not provide adequate.

Accordingly, if Exeter Finance or CarMax wish to resolve this matter, all future correspondence must be directed by email only, using one of the two email addresses listed in the contract, as previously requested. For ignoring this request Wafford sends this correspondence via fax numbers instead of any of your three given mailing addresses.

You are hereby notified that your alleged default is ill-gotten and void, any repossession sought would be improper as a matter of law, and that you violate the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Note: Wafford will pay nothing assessed to him upon recovery or stemming from any action related to this account. There are no accounts to garnish, nor will there be anything tangible to tax against within the span of eight years. Repossession would not be financially prudent for you in this instance; you will not be reimbursed, and your pursuit could result in partial collateral forfeiture.

Two-Day Notice to Cure Unlawful Collections, Charges, Repossessions, and to Provide Necessary & Reasonable Fees for Repairs: You are hereby notified that if you do not reach a consensus to release his lien and to provide reasonable fees by August 29, 2025, he will begin the process of publicizing and releasing these documents to the general public that could impact your reputation long after your recovery as he will be researching other potential findings linked to Exeter and CarMax, and the cartel of affiliated entities within CarMax's business network in their below described statement.

Reach an agreement with him to avoid unnecessary costs, publications, and any potential future damage to your legal and corporate existence.

Sincerely,

Dwayne Wafford

CONSUMER'S SECOND COMPLAINT

Dwayne Wafford, a customer (“consumer”) who purchased a used vehicle (“the Vehicle”) bearing VIN No. WDDHF5KB3CA^{REDACTED}, has filed his Second Consumer Complaint with the Georgia Attorney General’s Consumer Protection Division (“GAGCPD”) pursuant to Item No. 3, “File a Complaint.” He brings this action against CarMax Auto Superstores, Inc. (“CarMax”) and Exeter Finance (“Exeter”), together with their alleged business partnership (“ExMax”). The consumer requests either a full refund of all payments made to Exeter or the opportunity to lease a late-model car at a significantly lower rate, as explained in this complaint. This Complaint presents the relevant facts to GAGCPD clearly and concisely.

I.

FACTS

A. Origination

§ 1 At the time of the contract, Exeter was a Georgia LLC, as recorded in the Consumer Verification, Display A, page 9, § 1.1. CarMax is a foreign LLC based in California, with its co-principal office located in Kennesaw, Georgia. The consumer is a U.S. citizen with a previous residence in Alabama. The primary dispute involving Exeter centers on the state of Georgia. Matters such as articles of incorporation, Exeter’s principal place of business, and interstate commerce are of lesser relevance. According to CarMax’s Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) filings, Exeter is classified as one of CarMax’s “third-party” financial providers [Disp. B p. 11, “Customer Credit”].

B. History

§ 2 On June 1, 2024, Consumer and Exeter executed a contract for the commercial purchase of the Vehicle at 1661 Whittlesey Road, Columbus, Georgia. The consumer submitted a complaint to GAGCPD on June 17, 2024, which led to a refund being issued to Exeter on July 1 by a company that allegedly permitted ExMax to use the company as a domestic shell entity. This conduct facilitated a non-arm’s-length transaction and involved alleged breaches, fraudulent conduct, and tortious acts that undermined Exeter’s commercial contract, including its arbitration provision.

C. Post-Complaint

§ 3 While both GAGCPD and the consumer agreed that Rivertown Buick GMC (“RBGMC”) was the original assignor-dealer that added fees (other than title, taxes, and registration) to the advertised price, Exeter’s Office of the President (“EOP”) to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“CFPB”) on September 23, 2024, that the assignor was CarMax [Disp. C]. The consumer had appealed to the CFPB regarding Exeter’s handling of his account prior to the CFPB’s federal staff reductions.

D. U.S. DOGE

§ 4 The CFPB accepted Exeter’s response as true and dismissed his complaint. CarMax has maintained an active interest in the bureau through its Associate Director, Christopher Johnson, due to his prior role at CarMax in the suppression of Regulation Z. A search for “Exeter” and “CarMax” in the bureau’s public-facing search tool yields only an archived link related to Johnson’s hiring and background. By contrast, searches for other major corporations frequently return results reflecting consumer-oriented enforcement actions. This pattern suggests the possibility of differential treatment by the CFPB based on regulatory access or institutional influence.

§ 5 There are funding positions at CarMax specific to Exeter [Disp. D]. Through a program, ExMax sold its vehicle at RBGMC, including the extra fees ExMax charged the consumer, to obscure the origin of ExMax’s alleged deception. The vehicle was financed through Exeter in connection with CarMax before the consumer arrived at the RBGMC lot. The following supports EOP’s statement that CarMax, rather than RBGMC, was the original dealer:

- The electronic funds transfer to Exeter made by the consumer is described on the contract presented by RBGMC as “Rivertown Buick/GMC for Elec xfer fee.”
- No financing options were available other than Exeter, despite the consumer having paid half of the no-haggle price upfront.

II.

COMPLAINT

§ 6 The contract lacked a meeting of the minds due to uncertainty regarding which parties were bound by it, as demonstrated by the discovery of this omission. Publicly available information shows that Exeter and CarMax are closely associated with selling a specific segment of vehicles.

§ 7 Exeter received a fraudulent refund from a check issued in Georgia, which stemmed from unfair or deceptive practices the businesses had promoted. Exeter, through ExMax, adopted a mutual-gain strategy with CarMax and RBGMC by leveraging a shell entity’s upselling and recouping the proceeds through monthly charges imposed on the consumer.

§ 8 ExMax, through its shell company, included the electronic transfer fee—paid separately by the consumer to Exeter—in the contract, thereby inaccurately reflecting the consumer’s down payment. The down payment should reflect the total amount before the transfer fee to avoid erroneous double billing.

§ 9 Exeter conceals its interest rates and loan conditions by miscalculating monthly payments, either by extending payment intervals or by artificially inflating its Truth in Lending Act’s (“TILA”) APR through standardized formulas designed to extend loan terms and obscure additional costs. The consumer notes that ExMax is actively refunding a chargeback to RBGMC, such that ExMax charges the consumer more than the percentage stated in the contract each month. This alleged deception pervaded every aspect of the contract that the consumer signed. The omission, the companies’ awareness of it, their intent, and the consumer’s reliance on this concealment resulted in unnecessary financial loss to the consumer.

§ 10 CarMax's SEC statement that Exeter Finance is merely one of its third-party financial providers constitutes a federal false statement. Vehicle sales inherently narrow the vendors' markets to automobiles; however, Exeter Finance functions as an extension of CarMax. Public familiarity with larger, more recognizable corporations may explain why ExMax appears to have fewer complaints in the CFPB's advanced search results compared to more established companies. Nevertheless, the number of complaints per consumer warrants scrutiny. Exeter's affiliated business, Swift Funding Loans in Duluth, GA, has a 1.4-out-of-5-star rating based on 256 Google reviews. Fewer than 30 percent of those reviews—71 in total—are favorable enough to sustain that rating.

III.

CONCLUSION & PRAYER

§ 11 These companies have also erred by submitting requests encouraging courts to leave, rather than stay, proceedings in order to enforce arbitration under the Federal Arbitration Act. ExMax's conduct encroaches upon fundamental legal principles, procedural norms, and financial regulations, raising questions as to why such behavior is permitted. The volume, intensity, and reproducibility of consumer complaints satisfy the plausibility standard. However, the government disregards these patterns and characterizes consumers as legally incompetent, contributing to the erosion of due process protections.

§ 12 The consumer asserts that he does not owe any additional sums to Exeter Finance beyond the initial payments made, regardless of any billing suspension or delay. The consumer therefore requests that GAGCPD investigate these matters and take appropriate enforcement action.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Dwayne Wafford

Products and Services

Retail Merchandising. We offer customers a broad selection of makes and models of used vehicles, including domestic, imported and luxury vehicles, as well as hybrid and electric vehicles ("EV"), at competitive prices. Our focus is vehicles that are 0 to 10 years old, with vehicles that are 0 to 6 years old representing approximately 75% of used vehicle sales in fiscal 2025. Over the past three fiscal years, vehicles that are 0 to 10 years old generally ranged in price from $15,000 to $49,000. The mix of our used vehicle inventory by make, model and age will vary from time to time, depending on consumer preferences, seasonality and market pricing and availability.

Wholesale Auctions. The typical vehicle sold at our wholesale auctions is more than 10 years old and has more than 100,000 miles. We provide condition disclosures on each vehicle, including those for vehicles with major mechanical issues, possible frame or flood damage, branded titles, salvage history and unknown true mileage. Professional, licensed auctioneers conduct our auctions. Dealers pay a fee to us based on the sales price of the vehicles they purchase. Our auctions are generally held on a weekly or bi-weekly basis.

Extended Protection Plans. In conjunction with the sale of a vehicle, we offer customers EPP products. We receive revenue for selling these plans on behalf of unrelated third parties, who are the primary obligors. We have no contractual liability to customers for claims under these agreements. The ESPs we currently offer on all used retail vehicles provide coverage up to 60 months (subject to mileage limitations). GAP covers the customer for the term of their finance contract. The EPPs that we sell have been designed to our specifications and are administered by the third parties through private-label arrangements. Periodically, we may receive profit-sharing revenues based upon the performance of the ESP policies administered by third parties. As of February 28, 2025, our third-party ESP providers included Assurant, Inc., CNA National Warranty Corporation and Fidelity Warranty Services, Inc. Our third-party GAP provider as of February 28, 2025 was Safe-Guard Products International LLC.

Reconditioning and Service. An integral part of our used car consumer offer is the reconditioning process, designed to make sure every car meets our internal standards before it can become a CarMax Quality Certified vehicle. This process includes an inspection of the engine and all major systems. Based on this inspection, we determine the reconditioning necessary to bring the vehicle up to our internal quality standards. Many of our stores depend upon nearby, typically larger, CarMax stores for reconditioning, which increases efficiency and reduces overhead. We utilize stand-alone reconditioning centers to balance production capacity across our stores and drive efficiency across our network. We perform most routine mechanical and minor body repairs in-house; however, for some reconditioning services, including, but not limited to, services related to manufacturer's warranties, we engage third parties specializing in those services. CarMax does not have manufacturer authorization to complete recall-related repairs, and some vehicles CarMax sells may have unrepainted safety recalls. However, safety recall information, as reported by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, is available on our website, and we review any unrepainted safety recall information with our used vehicle customers before purchase.

All CarMax used car stores provide vehicle repair service, including repairs of vehicles covered by the ESPs we sell. Additionally, we have partnered with third-party auto service and repair providers. Through these partnerships, our customers have access to a nationwide network of trusted, quality and fair-priced service and repair locations.

Customer Credit. We offer financing alternatives for retail customers across a wide range of the credit spectrum through CAF and arrangements with several financial institutions. Vehicles are financed using retail installment contracts secured by the vehicle. As of February 28, 2025, our network of third-party finance providers included Ally Financial, American Credit Acceptance, Capital One Auto Finance, Exeter Finance Corp., Santander Consumer USA and Westlake Financial Services. We have no recourse liability for credit losses on retail installment contracts arranged and held by third-party providers, and we periodically test additional third-party providers.

Generally, credit applications submitted by customers to CarMax are initially reviewed by CAF using our proprietary underwriting standards. Based on that review, CAF makes financing offers designed to create a loan portfolio that meets our targeted risk profile in the aggregate. Applications that CAF declines or approves with conditions are generally evaluated by other third-party finance providers. Third-party providers generally either pay us or are paid a fixed, pre-negotiated fee per contract. We refer to the providers who generally pay us a fee or to whom no fee is paid as Tier 2 providers, and we refer to providers to whom we pay a fee as Tier 3 providers. We are willing to pay a fee to Tier 3 providers because we believe their participation provides us with incremental sales by enabling customers to secure financing that they may not otherwise be able to obtain. All fees either received or paid are pre-negotiated at a fixed amount and do not vary based on the amount financed, the interest rate, the term of the loan or the loan-to-value ratio. CAF also provides financing for a small percentage of customers who would typically be financed by a Tier 2 or Tier 3 provider. CAF is building the capability to scale its participation across all credit tiers, which will help to capture finance economics, drive sales, and complement our valued lending partnerships that are a key foundation of CarMax's best-in-class credit platform.

Company's Response

Dear Dwayne Wafford, On September 23, 2024, Exeter Finance LLC ("Exeter") received notice regarding your complaint filed through the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB"). Exeter would like to thank you for the opportunity to address your concerns outline in the complaint. Exeter's success is based on customer satisfaction with our products and services, so the issues presented in this complaint are taken seriously and every effort is made to provide a prompt and equitable response.

Exeter has thoroughly investigated your complaint, responded to the CFPB, and made the following determination. On June 1, 2024, you signed a Retail Installment Sale Contract ("Contract") for the purchase of the ^{REDACTED} Mercedes Benz E350W (VIN# WDDHF5KB3CA ^{REDACTED}) ("Vehicle") with CarMax Auto Superstores, Inc. ("Dealer"), which was later assigned to Exeter where it was ascribed an account number of 230067 ^{RED} ("Account"). The Contract payment schedule stated 60 monthly payments of $304.64 beginning July 16, 2024, with an Annual Percentage Rate ("APR") of 29.99%. The APR charged does not exceed the rate allowed by the state of Georgia in which the Contract was executed. All required information regarding the terms of the Contract, including the APR were disclosed on the Contract as required by law; the signed Contract shows that you agreed with the terms and conditions. Exeter is an indirect automobile lender that purchases retail installment contracts from automobile dealers. We do not communicate or negotiate Contract terms, including a down payment, with borrowers prior to consummation of the Contract between the borrower and the Dealer. Any concerns regarding the required down payment should be addressed directly with the Dealer. Exeter does not offer refinancing, therefore, will not refinance or otherwise change the existing terms of the Contract. Regarding your Guaranteed Asset Protection ("GAP"), upon receipt of a refund after cancellation of GAP product financed in the contract, Exeter will apply the refund to the unpaid part of the amount financed. Unfortunately, the contract will not be revised. The cancelled GAP payment was received on August 22, 2024, in the amount of $1,125.04. Additionally, Exeter is unable to release the title until the Account has been paid in full. Exeter is committed to providing excellent customer service and we apologize if you feel that the service received did not meet your expectations. We are unable to substantiate your claims regarding any violations by Exeter as stated in this complaint and regrettably, are unable to fulfill your request for an equitable remedy. We trust this response answers any questions associated with the complaint. For any questions about these or any other concerns, we encourage you to contact the Office of the President at 877-877-4943. Sincerely, Office of the President Exeter Finance LLC

OTHER IMPORTANT AGREEMENTS

1. FINANCE CHARGE AND PAYMENTS

- a. How we will figure Finance Charge. We will figure the Finance Charge on a daily basis at the Annual Percentage Rate on the unpaid part of the Amount Financed.
- b. How we will apply payments. We may apply each payment to the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge, to the unpaid part of the Amount Financed and to other amounts you owe under this contract in any order we choose as the law allows.
- c. How late payments or early payments change what you must pay. We based the Finance Charge, Total of Payments, and Total Sale Price shown on page 1 on the assumption that you will make every payment on the day it is due. Your Finance Charge, Total of Payments, and Total Sale Price will be more if you pay late and less if you pay early. Changes may take the form of a larger or smaller final payment or, at our option, more or fewer payments of the same amount as your scheduled payment with a smaller final payment. We will send you a notice telling you about these changes before the final scheduled payment is due.
- d. You may prepay. You may prepay all or part of the unpaid part of the Amount Financed at any time without penalty. If you do so, you must pay the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge and all other amounts due up to the date of your payment.

2. YOUR OTHER PROMISES TO US

- a. If the vehicle is damaged, destroyed, or missing. You agree to pay us all you owe under this contract even if the vehicle is damaged, destroyed, or missing.
- b. Using the vehicle. You agree not to remove the vehicle from the U.S. or Canada, or to sell, rent, lease, or transfer any interest in the vehicle or this contract without our written permission. You agree not to expose the vehicle to misuse, seizure, confiscation, or involuntary transfer. If we pay any repair bills, storage bills, taxes, fines, or charges on the vehicle, you agree to repay the amount when we ask for it.
- c. Security Interest. You give us a security interest in:
 - The vehicle and all parts or goods put on it;
 - All money or goods received (proceeds) for the vehicle;
 - All insurance, maintenance, service, or other contracts we finance for you; and
 - All proceeds from insurance, maintenance, service, or other contracts we finance for you. This includes any refunds of premiums or charges from the contracts.This secures payment of all you owe on this contract. It also secures your other agreements in this contract. You will make sure the title shows our security interest (lien) in the vehicle. You will not allow any other security interest to be placed on the title without our written permission.
- d. Insurance you must have on the vehicle. You agree to have physical damage insurance covering loss or damage to the vehicle for the term of this contract. The insurance must cover our interest in the vehicle. You agree to name us on your insurance policy as loss payee. If you do not have this insurance, we may, if we choose, buy physical damage insurance. If we decide to buy physical damage insurance, we may either buy insurance that covers your interest and our interest in the vehicle, or buy insurance that covers only our interest. If we buy either type of insurance, we will tell you which type and the charge you must pay. The charge will be the premium for the insurance and a finance charge computed at the Annual Percentage Rate shown on page 1 of this contract or, at our option, the highest rate the law permits.
- e. If the vehicle is lost or damaged, you agree that we may use any insurance settlement to reduce what you owe or repair the vehicle.
- f. What happens to returned Insurance, maintenance, service, or other contract charges. If we obtain a refund of insurance, maintenance, service, or other contract charges, you agree that we may subtract the refund from what you owe.

3. IF YOU PAY LATE OR BREAK YOUR OTHER PROMISES

- a. You may owe late charges. You will pay a late charge on each late payment as shown on page 1. Acceptance of a late payment or late charge does not excuse your late payment or mean that you may keep making late payments. If you pay late, we may also take the steps described below.
- b. You may have to pay all you owe at once. If you break your promises (default), we may demand that you pay all you owe on this contract at once. Default means:
 - You do not pay any payment on time;
 - You give false, incomplete, or misleading information during credit application;
 - You start a proceeding in bankruptcy or one is started against you or your property; or

Non-Authenticative Copy (010-00000)

- You break any agreements in this contract.
- The amount you will owe will be the unpaid part of the Amount Financed plus the earned and unpaid part of the Finance Charge, any late charges, and any amounts due because you defaulted.
- c. You may have to pay collection costs. If we hire an attorney to collect what you owe, you will pay 15% of the amount you owe as attorney's fees, plus court costs. We will charge only attorney's fees and court costs the law permits.
- d. We may take the vehicle from you. If you default, we may take (repossess) the vehicle from you if we do so peacefully and the law allows it. If your vehicle has an electronic tracking device (such as GPS), you agree that we may use the device to find the vehicle. If we take the vehicle, any accessories, equipment, and replacement parts will stay with the vehicle. If any personal items are in the vehicle, we may store them for you. If you do not ask for these items back, we may dispose of them as the law allows.
- e. How you can get the vehicle back if we take it. If we repossess the vehicle, you may pay to get it back (redeem). We will tell you how much to pay to redeem. Your right to redeem ends when we sell the vehicle.
- f. We will sell the vehicle if you do not get it back. If you do not redeem, we will sell the vehicle. We will send you a written notice of sale before selling the vehicle. We will apply the money from the sale, less allowed expenses, to the amount you owe. Allowed expenses are expenses we pay as a direct result of taking the vehicle, holding it, preparing it for sale, and selling it. Attorney fees and court costs the law permits are also allowed expenses. If any money is left (surplus), we will pay it to you unless the law requires us to pay it to someone else. If money from the sale is not enough to pay the amount you owe, you must pay the rest to us. If you do not pay this amount when we ask, we may charge you interest at a rate not exceeding the highest lawful rate until you pay.
- g. What we may do about optional insurance, maintenance, service, or other contracts. This contract may contain charges for optional insurance, maintenance, service, or other contracts. If we demand that you pay all you owe at once or we repossess the vehicle, you agree that we may claim benefits under these contracts and cancel them to obtain refunds of unearned charges to reduce what you owe or repair the vehicle. If the vehicle is a total loss because it is confiscated, damaged, or stolen, we may claim benefits under these contracts and cancel them to obtain refunds of unearned charges to reduce what you owe.

ARBITRATION PROVISIONPLEASE REVIEW - IMPORTANT - AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

- 1. EITHER YOU OR WE MAY CHOOSE TO HAVE ANY DISPUTE BETWEEN YOU AND US DECIDED BY ARBITRATION AND NOT IN COURT OR BY JURY TRIAL.
- 2. IF A DISPUTE IS ARBITRATED, YOU WILL GIVE UP YOUR RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE OR CLASS MEMBER ON ANY CLASS CLAIM YOU MAY HAVE AGAINST US INCLUDING ANY RIGHT TO CLASS ARBITRATION OR ANY CONSOLIDATION OF INDIVIDUAL ARBITRATIONS.
- 3. DISCOVERY AND RIGHTS TO APPEAL IN ARBITRATION ARE GENERALLY MORE LIMITED THAN IN A LAWSUIT, AND OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU AND WE WOULD HAVE IN COURT MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE IN ARBITRATION.

Any claim or dispute, whether in contract, tort, statute or otherwise (including the interpretation and scope of this Arbitration Provision, any allegation of waiver of rights under this Arbitration Provision, and the arbitrability of the claim or dispute), between you and us or our employees, agents, successors or assigns, which arises out of or relates to your credit application, purchase or condition of this Vehicle, this contract or any resulting transaction or relationship (including any such relationship with third parties who do not sign this contract) shall, at your or our election, be resolved by neutral, binding arbitration and not by a court action. If federal law provides that a claim or dispute is not subject to binding arbitration, this Arbitration Provision shall not apply to such claim or dispute. Any claim or dispute is to be arbitrated by a single arbitrator only on an individual basis and not as a plaintiff in a collective or representative action, or a class representative or member of a class on any class claim. The arbitrator may not preside over a consolidated, representative, class, collective, injunctive, or private attorney general action. You expressly waive any right you may have to arbitrate a consolidated, representative, class, collective, injunctive, or private attorney general action. You or we may choose the American Arbitration Association (www.adr.org) or National Arbitration and Mediation (www.namadr.com) as the arbitration organization to conduct the arbitration. If you and we agree, you or we may choose a different arbitration organization. You may get a copy of the rules of an arbitration organization by contacting the organization or visiting its website.

Arbitrators shall be attorneys or retired judges and shall be selected pursuant to the applicable rules. The arbitrator shall apply governing substantive law and the applicable statute of limitations. The arbitration hearing shall be conducted in the federal district in which you reside unless the Seller-Creditor is a party to the claim or dispute, in which case the hearing will be held in the federal district where this transaction was originated. We will pay the filing, administration, service, or case management fee and the arbitrator or hearing fee up to a maximum of $5,000, unless the law or the rules of the chosen arbitration organization require us to pay more. You and we will pay the filing, administration, service, or case management fee and the arbitrator or hearing fee over $5,000 in accordance with the rules and procedures of the chosen arbitration organization. The amount we pay may be reimbursed in whole or in part by decision of the arbitrator if the arbitrator finds that any of your claims is frivolous under applicable law. Each party shall be responsible for its own attorney, expert and other fees, unless awarded by the arbitrator under applicable law. If the chosen arbitration organization's rules conflict with this Arbitration Provision, then the provisions of this Arbitration Provision shall control. Any arbitration under this Arbitration Provision shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.) and not by any state law concerning arbitration. Any award by the arbitrator shall be in writing and will be final and binding on all parties, subject to any limited right to appeal under the Federal Arbitration Act.

You and we retain the right to seek remedies in small claims court for disputes or claims within that court's jurisdiction, unless such action is transferred, removed or appealed to a different court. Neither you nor we waive the right to arbitrate any related or unrelated claims by filing any action in small claims court, or by using self-help remedies, such as repossession, or by filing an action to recover the vehicle, to recover a deficiency balance, or for individual or statutory public injunctive relief. Any court having jurisdiction may enter judgment on the arbitrator's award. This Arbitration Provision shall survive any termination, payoff or transfer of this contract. If any part of this Arbitration Provision, other than waivers of class rights, is deemed or found to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder shall remain enforceable. You agree that you expressly waive any right you may have for a claim or dispute to be resolved on a class basis in court or in arbitration. If a court or arbitrator finds that this class arbitration waiver is unenforceable for any reason with respect to a claim or dispute in which class allegations have been made, the rest of this Arbitration Provision shall also be unenforceable.

The Annual Percentage Rate may be negotiable with the Seller. The Seller may assign this contract and retain its right to receive a part of the Finance Charge.

Analysis of Interest Accrual and APR Miscalculation

Period: July 5, 2024 - February 16, 2025

Between July 5, 2024, and February 16, 2025, Exeter consistently charged the consumer an effective interest rate exceeding the disclosed annual percentage rate (APR) by extending the number of days used for interest accrual. Although the APR is presented as fixed, the interest charged fluctuates daily as a function of the unpaid principal balance multiplied by the stated APR, by the variable number of days since the last payment, and prorated by the total number of days in a year.

Formally, the daily interest calculation relies on three parameters: x , representing the listed APR; y , representing the present principal; and z , representing the number of days elapsed since the prior payment. While this methodology would be standard if applied correctly, Exeter's account statements consistently misapply these parameters, resulting in materially inflated effective rates.

Specifically, Exeter's statements reflect a 52.55% effective monthly rate applied to the first payment of $315.64, followed by rates of 31.89% on the second payment, 31.01% on the third, and 29.99% on the most recent payment (see Account Statement with Double-Billing Charge). Although these figures appear to converge toward the disclosed APR over successive payments, a correct allocation of the initial payment and the application of accurate APR calculations demonstrate that the rates converge instead toward approximately 31.8%, rather than the stated APR.

Moreover, the resulting cost differential is substantial. When the actual number of days used for interest accrual is properly accounted for, a comparison between the final account balance and the interest charged reveals convergence at approximately 34.74% (see True Account Statement with No Double-Billing Charge). This divergence indicates that the discrepancy is not merely nominal but materially affects the total cost borne by the consumer.

Basic finance charge formulas are generally straightforward. Monthly interest is typically calculated as a function of the principal balance for a given month, by the applicable APR, and adjusted for the number of days in the accrual period, as shown below:

$$i = \frac{(x \text{ APR\%})(y \text{ present principal})(z \text{ days since last payment})}{365}$$

The principal amount represents the balance applicable to a given month.

$$P(a) = \text{amount paid} - i.$$

The principal balance represents the outstanding financed amount.

$$P(b) = \text{principal} - P(a).$$

Supporting Calculations

When the depreciating principal values in Example Three are compared to Exeter's reported interest amounts, the average effective interest charged per month ranges from approximately 38% to 44.8%. This range substantially exceeds the disclosed APR and suggests that Exeter has effectively derived a transformed "true APR" for deferred presentment transactions.

This transformed rate appears to be calculated using monthly averages, by multiplying the ratio of the total payment to the finance charge (or amount financed) by 365 and then by 1,825. Such a procedure departs from standard APR computation methods and results in a materially higher effective rate.

*Abs(Amount Fin. or Fin. Charge)Abs(x * years)multiplied by cosine theta*

$$$18,278.40 = |$9,301.64||x * 5| \cos \theta, x \approx 39.3\dots 2$$

$$$18,278.40 = |$8,976.76||x * 5| \cos \theta, x \approx 40.7\dots 3$$

For comparison, a more direct and transparent equation is provided by the consumer, using the same underlying payment and balance data but applying these APRs strictly in accordance with the stated disclosure terms. Under this approach, calculated values of x approximate 39.32% and 40.73% in successive periods. These values are derived using the late charge specified in the disclosure and by extending the formula across a time horizon ranging from zero to five years.

$$\int_0^5 \frac{|$9301.64||0.39\dots 2| \cos \theta|}{365} dx = \int_0^5 \frac{|$8976.76||0.40\dots 3| \cos \theta|}{365} dx = $50.07$$
